J. V. Young, a hustling contractor and builder of this place, secured the contract to erect Dr. J. H. Murray's new dwelling house and office on Main street. Work on the new building will be commenced in a week or two.

John A. Johnston, editor of the Emporium Echo, has moved his printing office from Cameron county's metropolis to Mill Hill, near Lock Haven, where he expects to have a larger field to labor in. We wish Bro. Johnston success in Clinton county.

Hatchets, knives, &c., were conspicuous in a drunken Italian row on Railroad street on the afternoon of July 4th. None of the participants were injured, through the pluck and strength of an Italian woman. Had she not interfered blood would have been spilt.

A number of people who partook of the dinner served at the Reynolds block on the Fourth of July were slightly poisoned, some of them were very sick. Just what article of food made the people sick is unknown. The supposition is that it was the potatoes.

Prof. J. E. Eisenhart, of Corsica, who was a candidate for county superintendent and the principalship of the Reynoldsville schools, was elected principal of the Johnsonburg schools week before last and was married on Wednesday of last week to Miss Jennie M. Scott, of Corsica.

The school directors of Winslow township held a special meeting Saturday to let the contract for the rebuilding of the Bollinger school house, that was destroyed by forest fires on the 17th of May. J. M. Deemer, of Panic, was given the contract. Mr. Deemer will begin the erection of the structure in short order.

The Allens Mills P. O. S. of A., that carried off first prize at this place on the Fourth, has a membership of 63, 61 of whom were in the parade. All the members of the Alpine Cornet band, which accompanied the winners of the first prize, are members of the Allens Mills camp with the exception of one or two.

Rev. Hunter Corbett, who has been a Presbyterian missionary in China thirty-two years and is now in this country on a vacation, will lecture in Centennial hall to-morrow, Thursday, evening, July 16th. The lecture, which begins at 8:00 o'clock, is free. Mr. Corbett is an excellent talker.

How often do we hear people say, "Where in the world do the flies come from?" "It is simple enough," says an exchange. "The toper makes the house fly, the cyclone makes the saw fly, the boarder makes the butter fly, the dancer makes the heel fly, the jockey makes the horse fly, the Cubans make the Spanish fly, and the tin can makes the dog fly."

Good Entertainment.

Mrs. F. F. Patt and pupils gave a musical and literary entertainment in the opera house Monday evening. The attendance was small. The entertainment was very good.

Eye Knocked Out.

James Tapper had his right eye knocked out Monday forenoon. He was using a whip on a young horse and the whip, or rod, broke, a piece of it striking Mr. Tapper in the eye.

Will Enforce Ordinances.

At a meeting of the town council on the first Monday evening of this month it was decided to strictly enforce the sanitary and fast driving ordinances of this borough. It was also decided to put a stop to fast bicycle riding on the streets in the evening.

Arm Broken Second Time.

Robt., youngest son of John M. Stephenson, who fell off a mule the 25th of last April and had two bones of his right arm broken just below the elbow, was playing with some other boys last Saturday forenoon and fell on his arm and broke the two bones at the same place they were broken before.

Struck by Lightning.

During the storm Monday afternoon lightning struck A. T. McClure's barn at Pancoast. The lightning struck one end of the barn and ran to the other end—a distance of 82 feet—on an iron rod, that is used for a hay carrier, and down a post into the ground. Had it not been for the iron rod it is probable the barn and its contents, horses, farm implements and grain, would have been destroyed.

Drifting with the Tied.

William J. Frank, an erstwhile West Reynoldsville young man, now of Pittsburg, and Miss Clara Shaner, of West Reynoldsville, were married at the M. E. parsonage in Brookville Thursday afternoon, July 9th, 1896, by Rev. Dr. Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Frank returned to West Reynoldsville on the evening of their wedding day and were serenaded by the West Reynoldsville Cornet band. To-day Mr. and Mrs. Frank will go to Pittsburg where they will reside.

Sprained His Neck.

Casper F. Hoffman, the jeweler, has been stiff-necked since last Friday evening. On that evening he was sitting in front of his store with his chair tilted back when a friend, who was walking by, kicked the chair and upset Mr. Hoffman on the sidewalk. In attempting to save himself from a fall Casper sprained the leaders of his neck. He suffered intense pain for a few hours and could not lie down in bed the first night. Since that time he has been unusually dignified in his appearance.

School last Day of Aug.

On Monday, August 31st, the schools of this borough will begin an eight month term. That was the decision of the school board at a meeting held on Monday evening of last week. At the same meeting the order of numbering the rooms was reversed. Heretofore No. 1 has been the highest grade in the school. Hereafter No. 1 will be the primary, or lowest grade in the school, and No. 12 the highest. The Natural System of Vertical writing has been adopted for the Reynoldsville schools.

Dwelling House Burned.

The frame dwelling house occupied by Prof. A. T. Smitten at Rathmel and owned by the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association, was totally destroyed by fire at 3:30 A. M. Monday. The origin of the fire is unknown, but the supposition is that a glass lamp that was burning in the hall exploded. The fire had such headway when discovered that the family barely escaped with their lives, some of them escaped with only their night clothes on. Only two or three pieces of household goods were saved from the flames. The building was insured but the household goods were not insured.

Set a Good Example.

Dr. S. S. Gilson, of Pittsburg, one of the editors of the Presbyterian Banner, was in Reynoldsville several days last week looking after the Banner's circulation at this place. He remained in town over Sunday and filled the Presbyterian pulpit. Dr. Gilson evidently believes in short sermons during warm weather, and we have no objections to raise either. It took him twenty minutes to deliver his morning sermon and thirteen minutes to deliver his evening sermon. Thirteen minutes is a trifle short, but twenty-five minutes, or thirty at the extreme, is long enough sermon for warm weather.

A Class of Forty-three.

County Superintendent Teitrick made his first official visit to Reynoldsville on Friday of last week, at which time he held an examination in the public school building for teachers' certificates. He had a very interesting class, numbering forty-three. The examination is quite rigid, and just how many of the forty-three will get certificates is to be made known when the superintendent has time to examine the papers. Prof. Teitrick says he will not draw the line as close this year in granting certificates as he will hereafter. A special examination will be held at this place on Wednesday, August 5th.

An Active Life Ended.

Michael Best, who was well known in Jefferson county, having lived in the county over three score years, died at his home in Winslow township, several miles west of Reynoldsville, at noon on Saturday, July 11th, after being confined to his bed six days from softening of the brain. Michael Best was born in Westmoreland county March 26th, 1822, and was over 74 years old at the time of death. His parents moved to a farm near Eleanora, this county, when Michael was a mere lad. In 1847 he was married to Miss Julia Deemer, who survives him. Under them ten children were born, seven girls and three boys, all of whom are living but one daughter. His children are: Mrs. Frank Shugarts, of Beechwoods, Mrs. H. L. Hoike, of this place, Mrs. Harry Thompson, of Brookville, Mrs. Sebastine Bliss, Winslow township, Mrs. Augustus Shugarts, Miss Lizzie, John W., Frank R. and A. C. Best.

Funeral services were held in the Emerickville Lutheran church Monday forenoon, conducted by Rev. J. G. Harshaw, M. E. minister of Emerickville charge. A large concourse of people followed the remains of "Squire Best to the tomb."

Michael Best moved to what is now known as the Salt Works almost forty years ago. He was an extensive lumberman in the early days of Reynoldsville. He owned large tracts of timber land in the county.

He was a staunch Democrat up until several years ago when he flopped to the Peoples Party faith. He held a number of township offices and was Justice of the Peace one term. Mr. Best has always been a hard worker and would have had more of this world's goods stored up for his old days had he not been kind hearted and allowed his name to be used as security for friends who failed.

Editorial Jaunt.

Several hundred members of the Pennsylvania Editorial Association, accompanied by wives, sisters, cousins and aunts, hied away to Atlantic City—the beautiful summer resort—on June 29th, for their annual summer jaunt. The editorial party met at Philadelphia and traveled from there to the sea shore on a special train provided for the scribes by the cleanest, best equipped and safest railroad in the country—the Pennsylvania Railroad. Three or four days were spent very pleasantly at Atlantic City in various ways. The beach is delightful for bathing and few members of the party missed the opportunity of having a tussle with the white capped waves as they rolled in on the beach. Considerable time was squandered by members of the Association sitting on the pavilions along the beach watching boats ride on the bosom of the ocean and bathers plunge under the rolling waves.

There is something attractive about the restless ocean, especially in the even-tide when the exquisite gloaming, the tender sky, the full, heaving sea seem to be in the sweetest sympathy.

While at Atlantic City the party were quartered at the Grand Atlantic Hotel, a new and magnificent hostelry, the editorial party being its first guests.

James R. Wood, general passenger agent, and Geo. W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, are deserving of praise and thanks for courtesies extended to the members of the Pennsylvania Editorial Association.

Lusk-Armstrong Nuptials.

Miss Rosa Armstrong and Albert A. Lusk, two excellent young people of Reynoldsville, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Armstrong, on Third street, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, July 8th, in the presence of a number of invited guests, by Rev. Hubert Rex Johnson, retiring pastor of the Presbyterian church. Miss Martha Lusk, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Miles Armstrong, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Earnest Davis and Chas. Milliren were ushers and Miss Sue B. Ayers was pianist. The decorations consisted of an arch of laurel from which was suspended a yoke of laurel flowers, under which the ceremony was performed. The wedding was a very pretty one. After the nuptial knot was tied a sumptuous repast was served. Mr. Lusk had a house already furnished on Sixth street to which he took his bride a few hours after they were married. The presents were useful and valuable, among which was a Cabinet Grand piano, oak sideboard, toilet set, rattan rocking chair, metal parlor lamp, silver berry spoon, a dozen silver tea spoons, lovely glass pitcher, pair hand painted flower vases, parlor stand vase, linen sideboard cover, half dozen linen towels, half dozen linen napkins, two linen table cloths and numerous other articles.

Fell on a Scythe.

Edward Hillis, eighteen-year-old son of David Hillis, of Winslow township, had his right knee badly cut Monday afternoon by falling on a cradle-scythe. Edward was manipulating the scythe and his foot caught on a root and threw him on to the scythe. He may have a stiff knee.

We are the watch-repairers and the only place in Reynoldsville to get good work done. ED. GOODER, Jeweler.

A Few Changes.

The Jefferson and Clearfield Coal and Iron Co. has made some changes at the store and office in this place since the first of July. The office of the mine bookkeepers, which was formerly in the store building, has been moved to the brick office, where all the books of what was formerly the B. L. & Y. C. M. Co. plant, including the mines at DuBois, will be kept. In fact this will be headquarters. Mr. L. W. Robinson, general manager of the mines, has a room in the office at this place and will spend about half his time here. D. H. McIntyre is general manager of the Jefferson Supply Co. stores at this place and DuBois. Frank H. Beck, who had been in the employ of the old company at DuBois for a number of years, has been promoted and sent to this place to have general supervision of the mine books. This is a new position that was created by making the Reynoldsville office a general office for all the mines. Mr. Beck, who will remain here permanently, is an estimable young man and should receive a cordial welcome by all our citizens.

All the partitions in that part of the company store formerly used for offices have been torn out to enlarge the store room. Heretofore the clothing, hats, caps, &c., have been kept on the second floor of the building and they will be found on the first floor after the room has been made ready for the change.

Peoples Party Convention.

The Peoples Party of Jefferson county held a convention in the K. of P. hall at this place on the afternoon of July 4th. John N. Baughman, of Reynoldsville, was elected chairman and John Robinson, of the same place, was elected secretary and treasurer. The business of the convention was to nominate a ticket for the fall election, which resulted as follows: Congress, St. Clair Thompson, of Indiana Co.; Senator, Daniel Reitz, of Beaver township, Jefferson Co.; Assembly, George W. Porter, Clayville; Sheriff, Wm. Moser, Perry township; Register and Recorder, Perry Smith, Richardsville; Prothonotary, James H. Graybill, Crenshaw; County Treasurer, J. B. Conser, Clayville; County Commissioners, Chas. E. Noll, Eleanora, Wm. Hall, Rose Township; Auditors, John Robinson, Reynoldsville, George Baughman, Oliver Township. The State Chairman is to appoint a delegate to the National Convention. Delegate to State Convention, Perry Smith, of Richardsville. There was no nominations made for county committee; Populists having any person in view for county committee are to report to the county chairman.

"Didn't Know it was Loaded."

Last Saturday being the 4th of July, Mrs. J. A. Weber was lighting fire crackers to amuse the children. In order to frighten the chickens, she lighted one and threw it into the chicken park. Before it had time to explode the chickens made a rush for it, thinking it was something good to eat, and a large Plymouth Rock hen greedily gulped it down. She walked off proudly and disdainfully, as if to say to the other members of the flock, "You got left that time." But her triumph was short lived. She had not taken half a dozen steps until the cracker exploded, and the hen lay prostrate on the ground, dead. Her crew was burst and her neck broken. Shedied instantly. And the other chickens, which but a moment before had looked crestfallen and dejected, in falling to see what they believed to be a choice morsel of food, congratulated themselves upon their good fortune.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

"Jolly Lot."

By special request the Emery-Marlowe entertainment, that was given at the opera house on July 3rd, will be repeated this, Wednesday, evening, July 15th. The DuBois Courier's correspondent from this place, who attended the entertainment, says: "Mr. Emery and Miss Marlowe in their side-splitting specialty, 'The Society Tramp,' are without a parallel and never fail to bring down the house. Showalter and Zane in the musical act, show themselves to be musicians of the highest order. Mr. Emery the lightning scenic artist, astonishes everybody by painting a perfect landscape in sixty seconds. The stars, Emery and Marlowe, are ably supported by the lesser lights, Misses Margaret and Annie Emery and Messrs. Meeker and Harris, in the laughing comedy, 'The Married Mashers,' while little Mamie and Jess, as the newsboys, were simply irresistible. Upon the whole it is certainly 'A Jolly Lot.'"

Closing Out Sale.

I will close out my entire stock of millinery goods by the fifteenth of August. Everything will be sold below cost. Now is your time for bargains. I mean business. I will also sell four show cases, one mirror, one good bedroom suit, two stoves and other household goods.

MRS. R. M. ALEXANDER.

Watch repairing a specialty and our work speaks for itself. Give us a trial. ED. GOODER, Jeweler.

Brussels and ingrain carpets of all styles, at low prices, at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store.

REYNOLDSVILLE CELEBRATED!

The Town Beautifully Decorated—An Immense Crowd—Big Parade.

Snap, crack, fizz, bang. Up with the rockets, hooray! Give way to the boys, drink pink lemonade. 'Tis Reynoldsville's gala day.

The 4th of July was a gala day for Reynoldsville, long to be remembered. The day opened brightly and visitors began coming in at an early hour, and an unusual buzz of activity pervaded the village. The principal buildings were handsomely decorated with tricolor bunting, flags and evergreens. While at proper intervals handsome arches spanned Main street bearing the talismanic symbol, "Welcome," while bands and drum corps filled the air with stirring melody.

THE PARADE.

Promptly at ten-thirty o'clock the parade was formed on Fourth street, and led by Chief Marshall H. Alex. Stoke and aides, moved down Main st. in the following order:

West Reynoldsville Cornet Band.
Burgess and Town Council in carriages.
Punxsutawney Camp P. O. S. of A.
Allen's Mills Brass Band.
Allen's Mills Camp P. O. S. of A.
Cloe City Council Jr. O. U. A. M.
Deemer's Cross Roads Jr. O. U. A. M.
Cool Spring Drum Corps.
Emerickville Camp P. O. S. of A.
Reynoldsville Lodge I. O. of F.
Mountain Cliff Castle K. G. E.
Reynoldsville Lodge K. of P.
Hiawatha Council Jr. O. U. A. M.
John C. Conser Post G. A. R.
Fire Co. No. 1
Fire Co. No. 2
Camp 36, S. of V.
Industrial Boats
Fantasies.

The parade moved over the route previously announced and broke ranks at starting point. The prizes for the best percentage in line were awarded by the judges, Messrs M. W. McDonald and W. J. Weaver, as follows: First prize, $50.00, Allen's Mills Camp P. O. S. of A. Second prize, $30.00, Cloe City Council Jr. O. U. A. M. Third prize, $20.00, Deemer's Cross Roads Council Jr. O. U. A. M.

Dinner was served in G. A. R. hall by Camp 36, Sons of Veterans, while ice cream and lemonade stands dotted Main street the entire length. At two o'clock in the afternoon dancing was begun in the Club rooms and to the exhilarating strains of the Miller Bros. orchestra the "light fantastic" was tripped until 11:30 p. m. Although the forenoon had looked exceedingly auspicious, threatening clouds began to obscure the heavens about twelve o'clock, which caused matters to look suspicious, and shortly after the rain came down in torrents which caused the looked for ball game, bicycle and foot races, &c., to be "nulla prosed" and the people gave themselves up to the indoor amusements. Everybody enjoyed themselves hugely from the bibulous hum, who saturated himself with the seductive amber fluid, the rustic swain and his innamorata who minced ice cream and sipped pink lemonade, to the frisky kidlet with his pack of Chinese squibs and torpedoes. The day was one long to be remembered and the Sons of Vet's were untiring in their efforts to make the visitors feel at home, for which they deserve great credit. The large crowd was very orderly, accidents were unknown, and the 4th closed at midnight leaving everybody tired but happy.

Charles W. Arnold, senior member of the firm of Arnold Bros., of Clarion, and nephew of F. K. Arnold, of Reynoldsville, died at his home in Clarion on Sunday morning. He was a young man 28 years old, but the firm by energy had built up the largest mercantile establishment in Clarion county. He has not been in good health for some time and spent last winter in Florida. His father, Mr. M. Arnold, was one of the most widely known and successful business men in Clarion county. He leaves a wife and one child.

A Famous German Doctor's Work

Consumption is now known to be curable if taken in time—the German remedy known as Otto's Cure, having been found to be an almost certain cure for the disease. Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Coughs, Colds, Pneumonia, and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured by Dr. Otto's Great German Remedy. Sample bottles of Otto's cure are being given away at Reynolds Drug Store. Large sizes 25c. and 50 cents.

The editor of a southern exchange says: "Let the young man about town out of a job try a year on a farm. Plowing behind a mule will give him a new constitution, take the kinks out of his head, the frog out of his throat, the weakness out of his legs and give him a good appetite and honest living and a sight of heaven."

The Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store has received new spring samples of Brussels, extra velvet and ingrain carpets. If you want a new carpet see the samples and get prices at this store.
